FULL FILM LINEUP

The Academy of Muses \(La academia de las musas\)

Directed by José Luis Guerín. Spain. 2015. 92 min. Narrative.

The latest film from Spanish master Jose Luis Guerin (In the City of Sylvia, Guest) blends narrative and documentary filmmaking into a witty, exquisite mixture of high-minded intellectual discourse and earthy desires.

Fri, 11/11, 5:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Mon, 11/14, 5:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Alba

Directed by Ana Cristina Barragán. Ecuador/Mexico/Greece. 2016. 94 min. Narrative.

Winner of the Lions Film Award at the International Film Festival Rotterdam and the Horizontes Award, Special Mention at the San Sebastian Film Festival, the debut feature from writer/director Ana Cristina Barragán is already being heralded as a breakthrough for Ecuadorian cinema, and to experience the film is to leave little doubt of its importance: at once a gritty, unsentimental exploration of the casual cruelties of pre-adolescent life; and a hopeful, finely drawn portrait of a girl yet to realize her own quiet beauty.

Sat, 11/12, 12:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Tue, 11/15, 4:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Between Sea and Land \(La ciénaga - Entre el mar y la tierra\)

Directed by Manolo Cruz, Carlos del Castillo. Colombia. 98 min. 2016. Narrative.

Winner of the Audience Award at the 2016 Sundance World Cinema Dramatic Competition, as well as a Special Jury Prize for Acting, Manolo Cruz's tour de force is a profound and powerful meditation on the strength of a mother's love. Actress Vicky Hernández scheduled to attend the festival.

Sat, 11/12, 9:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Sun, 11/13, 3:30 PM, Parkway Theatre

Gimme the Power

Directed by Olallo Rubio. Mexico. 101 min. 2012. Documentary.

Playfully using archival footage and film clips alongside interviews with Mexico's most infamous rockers and critics, Gimme the Power is, like the anthemic song it's named after, a galvanizing blast of three-chord energy and the loudest, most punk rock history lesson you'll ever experience.

Sat, 11/12, 2:00 PM, Metropolitan State University Film Space

Sun, 11/13, 5:30 PM, Parkway Theatre

Horizons \(Horizontes\)

Directed by Eileen Hofer. Cuba/Switzerland. 71 min. 2015. Documentary.

Swiss writer/director Eileen Hofer's second documentary is a poetic intergenerational glimpse into the lives of three generations of ballerinas; the 94 year-old living legend, Alicia Alonso, an acclaimed dancer in the prime of her career, and of a young upstart searching for her own voice.

Sun, 11/13, 5:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Wed, 11/16, 5:45 PM, Metropolitan State University Film Space

How Most Things Work \(Cómo funcionan casi todas las cosas\)

Directed by Fernando Salem. Argentina. 95 min. 2015. Narrative.

It All Started at the End \(Todo comenzó por el fin\)

Directed by Luis Ospina. Colombia. 208 min. 2015. Documentary.

Fearlessly using his own grim cancer diagnosis as a starting point, legendary Colombian filmmaker and writer Luis Ospina weaves a touching, impassioned recounting of his time with the Grupo de Cali, a close network of fervent cinephiles who came together in the early 70s and ended up leaving an indelible mark on Colombian film history.

Tue, 11/15, 3:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Leaf Blower \(Sopladora de hojas\)

Directed by Alejandro Iglesias Mendizabal. Mexico. 96 min. 2015. Narrative.

With beautifully crafted characters whose outwardly simple presentations mask complex inner lives, Leaf Blower is a sharp and bittersweet coming-of-age comedy about the twilight of childhood and the uncertainties of what comes next. Director

Alejandro Iglesias Mendizabal scheduled to attend the festival.

Sat, 11/12, 6:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Sun, 11/13, 7:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Liveforever \(Qué viva la música\)

Directed by Carlos Moreno. Mexico/Colombia. 100 min. 2015. Narrative.

Defying narrative convention, this rich and sensual adaptation of the 1977 best-selling Colombian cult novel ¡Que viva la música! is drenched in a Fania Records soundtrack and delivers a lyrical, mesmerizing mix of energy, irreverence and salsa.

Sat, 11/12, 9:30 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Wed, 11/16, 9:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Neruda

Directed by Pablo Larraín. Chile/Argentina/France/Spain. 107 min. 2016. Narrative

Panamerican Machinery \(Maquinaria Panamericana\)

Directed by Joaquín del Paso. Mexico. 86 min. 2016. Narrative.

Winner of the Mezcal Award for Best Mexican Film at the Guadalajara International Film Festival, this debut feature pays homage to the classic social satires of the 1970s with a distinctly modern twist. Specific enough to openly call out a deeply dysfunctional Mexican political structure yet universal enough to be anywhere that industrialization has yet to keep its promise, Panamerican Machinery takes aim at all the right targets.

Tue, 11/15, 7:30 PM, Metropolitan State University Film Space

Thur, 11/17, 7:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Rara

Directed by Pepa San Martín. Chile/Argentina. 92 min. 2016. Narrative.

This fresh and surprising coming of age film doesn't shy away from the realities faced by many families headed by same-sex parents. Keenly observed and sensitively drawn, Rara is a movie for anyone who's fought to keep their head up in a world that just doesn't get it.

Sun, 11/13, 7:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Wed, 11/16, 9:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Siembra

Directed by Ángela Osorio, Santiago Lozano. Colombia. 80 min. 2015. Narrative.

Filed in crisp black and white, and alive with music and dance, this unforgettable debut narrative recounts the struggles of Colombia's 7 million internally displaced people, and is an often joyous testament to the survival of that country's rural cultures uprooted and replanted in urban soil.

Sun, 11/13, 1:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Thur, 11/17, 5:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

The Song of the Hummingbird \(El canto del colibrí\)

Directed by Marco Castro-Bojorquez. USA. 53 min. 2015. Documentary.

Visiting Venezuela, Mexico and Colombia, as well as cities across the U.S., director Marco Castro-Bojorquez's followup to his acclaimed short documentary Tres gotas de agua (Three Drops of Water) is a rich and varied feature exploring what it means to be the Latino father of an LGBT child.

Sat, 11/12, 1:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Tue, 11/15, 6:00 PM, Metropolitan State University Film Space

Tempestad

Directed by Tatiana Huezo. Mexico. 105 min. 2016. Documentary.

A meditation of the notion of "impunidad," the unaccountability of those in power, Tempestad is an emotional, contemplative journey told by two women victimized by Mexico's corruption and injustice.

Sat, 11/12, 2:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Wed, 11/16, 4:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

The Tenth Man \(El rey del Once\)

Directed by Daniel Burman. Argentina. 82 minutes. 2016. Narrative.

Writer/director Daniel Burman, (Lost Embrace) continues his look at the lives and tensions between fathers and sons with this wry middle-aged coming-of-age comedy that proves that sometimes to find yourself you need to return to your roots.

Truman

Directed by Cesc Gay. Spain/Argentina. 108 min. 2015. Narrative

Winner of five Goya Awards including Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actor and Best Supporting Actor, Cesc Gay's beautiful new film is a wise and tender ode to friendship.

Fri, 11/11, 7:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Where I Grow Old \(A cidade onde envelheço\)

Directed by Marília Rocha. Brazil/Portugal. 100 min. 2016. Narrative.

Developed through improvisational workshops with non-professional actors, this first fiction narrative from acclaimed documentarian Marília Rocha weaves a warm, true to life spell that will resonate with anyone who remembers (or is experiencing) the exciting, unsteady energy of what it is to be twenty-something and free.

Lead actress Francisca Manuel scheduled to attend the festival.

Sun, 11/13, 4:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Tue, 11/15, 7:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

X500 \(X Quinientos\)

Directed by Juan Andrés Arango Garcia. Canada/Colombia/Mexico. 108 min. 2016. Narrative.

Named after the Yucatán village considered the geographic center of the American continent, this visually stunning sophomore film from acclaimed Colombian writer/director Juan Andrés Arango is an unabashedly honest account of the universal struggle of migrants to find love and acceptance in strange new worlds.

Sneak Preview Screening

Wed, 11/16, 7:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

You're Killing Me Susana \(Me estás matando Susana\)

Directed by Roberto Sneider. Mexico/Canada. 100 min. 2016. Narrative.

Played against the (literally and figuratively) white background of Iowa, You're Killing Me Susana is a sensitive, often hilarious look at the passive/aggressive games played by two people who haven't quite graduated to full-fledged adulthood, at least not yet

Sun, 11/13, 2:15 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Tue, 11/15, 9:30 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

You'll Never Be Alone \(Nunca vas a estar solo\)

Directed by Alex Anwandter. Chile. 81 min. 2016. Narrative.

Based in part on the 2012 murder of gay Chilean Daniel Zamudio, this unforgettable debut feature from electropop musician Alex Anwandter is at once a pointed social critique, an engrossing tale of betrayal and redemption, and stirring testament to a father's love.

Fri, 11/11, 9:00 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

Mon, 11/14, 9:45 PM, St. Anthony Main Theatre

All films are in their original languages, with English subtitles.
